Directions

Car

From the South: Leave the M1 J21A (follow the brown road signs with a distinctive rocket logo). Join the A46, dual carriage ring road. At the A6 island, take the A6 south heading into city centre. The Space Centre is sign posted off the main road (on your left).

From the North: Leave the M1 J22, A50 (follow the brown road signs with a distinctive rocket logo). Join the A46 heading north, dual carriage ring road. At the A6 (Loughborough) island, take the A6 south heading into city centre. The Space Centre is sign posted off the main road (on your left).

Train

East Midlands Trains/Cross Country serve Leicester station. From opposite the railway station, take the First Leicester number 54 Yellow Line bus (which runs every 12 minutes on Saturday) to Abbey Lane. The Space Centre is a short walk away down Corporation Road on Exploration Drive. I may organise a pickup from the station, as Saturday service is not so frequent (contact me if required).

The entry fee includes entry to space centre exhibitions and free parking. Food is available at the Space Centre café.
