

Oxford Go Tournament: Sat 18 Feb 2012

The Oxford Go Tournament 2012 is generously sponsored by Hoyle's, Oxford, and will be held in the very pleasant college of St Edmund Hall. There will also be a parallel novice tournament, with further prizes. There are further special prizes for under-18s, -15s, -12s, and -9s. Hoyle's will run their shop at the event. The Simon Eve Memorial evening meal following the event is optional. All players, whatever level, are very welcome!

Date: Saturday 18th February 2012

Format: Main tournament: 3 rounds McMahon. 50 minutes main time; Canadian byōyomi (30/5).
Novice tournament: as per main, plus (optional) extra self-pairing games.

Timings: Registration: 9.00–9.45am. 1st round 10am. Prize-giving 5.45–6.00pm.

Fees (includes tea and coffee):

BGA members: Standard: £7 Concessions (students, under 18s, pensioners, unwaged): £5

Non BGA members: £10 (£8 concessions)

Late entry surcharge (after Feb 15th 2012): £2

Brunch: £3.50 (available to first 45 people who reserve it)

Dinner: For those who wish to come, the Simon Eve memorial dinner will be held in town afterwards, at a local Chinese restaurant (please apply on e-form).

Accommodation: Bed/floor (limited amount: first come, first served!). Fri/Sat nights.

Prizes: main tournament; novices; under 18; under 15; under 12; and under 9

Location: St Edmund Hall, Queens Lane, Oxford, OX1 4AR (just off High Street). Coming from High Street, St Edmund Hall is the first entrance on the right in Queen's Lane. This is in the town centre – see map.

Map: <http://tinyurl.com/oxgo2012map>

More info / tournament registration: <http://tinyurl.com/oxgo2012>

Further queries (preferred): oxfordgotournament2012@gmail.com

else

Harry Fearnley, 38 Henley Street, Oxford, OX4 1ES

Tel: 01865 248775 -- only if you cannot email/write, and not on the day.