

BRITISH

GO

JOURNAL

Number 146

Autumn 2008

Price £3.50

Photo Quiz

Where was this taken ?

The Au problem on a board. Photo by Tim Hunt.

PHOTO CREDITS

This Issue contains a centre colour spread and many pictures in other articles to celebrate the GB team presence at the World Mind Sports Games in Beijing. The centre spread was compiled and montaged by Jon Diamond, including photos by Ron Bell, Martin Burnham, Jonathan Chin, Jon Diamond, Martin & Helen Harvey, Toby Manning, Simon Shiu and Paul & Maria Tabor.

Neil Moffat, a professional photographer, provided those in his article.

Front Cover: The UK Women's team in action against Korea, with the Team Badge in the top banner.

Above: The Kyoto Igo Salon Owner by Neil Moffatt.

Rear Cover: Group shot of some the Team on the Wall by Jon Diamond.

Winton Capital Management, one of the UK's most successful investment management companies, sponsored the BGA to send a 22-strong UK team to the World Mind Sports Games in Beijing.

Winton Capital Management is a UK based global investment management company, founded by David Harding in 1997. Winton relies solely on scientific research in mathematics, statistics and computer science, to develop successful investment management strategies. It now employs over 200 people and manages over $16 billion for international financial institutions from offices in London, Oxford and Cambridge.

