Here is the latest from our Japan Correspondent, Brian Chandler:
All change! Cho Chi-kun has taken the Oza title from Kato 3-2, and Ryu Shu-kun (only 23 and originally from Korea) has taken the Tengen title from Rin 3-1. Also Ma Xiaochun ‘Mingren’ beat Kobayashi Koichi ‘Mojin’ 2-1 in one of those matches between same-in-Chinese-and-Japanese titleholders. Rui Naixei, 9-dan of China, won the Bo-hae Women’s World Championship in Seoul, beating Fang-Yun 2-1. [Help! I guess this is a Korean sponsor, and can only guess the pronunciation from my dictionary.] Kobayashi Satoru and Cho Chi-kun are tied 1-1 in the Kisei final. Kobayashi won the second game in only 60 moves, without even going into the second day.

NEWS

• At the AGM of the BGA Keith Osborne and Paul Smith retired from the Council. Paul Hankin and Colin Adams join it in their places. The new Constitution was passed.
• Membership Secretary: Terry Barker is retiring from this Office. I believe that we would all like to thank him for the work that he has put in. Alison Jones is taking over the post.
• The Thames Valley Team Tournament: 1st Royal Standard (Beaconsfield), 2nd Brakenhale Fellas, 3rd Furze Platt. 10x10 winner was Mark Harrod and 2nd James Hamilton. The Junior prize was won by David King.
• I read in the US Go Newsletter that the Japanese astronaut Koichi Wakata will play the first game of Go in space this November. I assume a magnetic set will be used, but my imagination takes off at the thought of a conventional set. I also noticed the “Chicago Hog Butcher Tourney” which was attended by 27 players and 100 doughnuts. Sounds like my kind of event.
